

Leah Rambo is the Director of Training for SMART Local 28 and has been serving in this capacity since 2011. Ms. Rambo's primary responsibility is the training and coordination of Local 28's five hundred and twenty-one apprentices, and two thousand three hundred Journey and Light commercial workers.

Ms. Rambo began her career as a sheet metal worker in 1988 and after working 10 years in the field, she was appointed as a full-time instructor, becoming the first woman to hold this position.

Through the joint efforts and stewardship of Leah and Local 28, the participation of females joining Sheet Metal Local 28 has increased from three percent in 2017 to sixteen percent in 2017.

Ms. Rambo teaches instructor development classes for the International Training Institute (ITI).

Leah currently serves on the New York City Department of Education's Career and Technical Education Advisory Council and Gender Equity Committee. She is also a member of the NYC Coalition for Women in Construction.

Ms. Rambo has a BA in Labor Education and several certifications in trades diversity and inclusion certification.

