

Social Entrepreneur and Advocate for Women and Children

Anna Rivera is a dedicated social entrepreneur with a profound commitment to making a lasting impact in the lives of women and children. Her mission centers on inspiring and empowering young girls to recognize and seize the limitless opportunities available to them. A graduate of LIU Post in Long Island, New York, Anna holds a degree in Social Work, which has been instrumental in shaping her passion for service and community engagement.

With a rich background in developing purpose-driven businesses, Anna has consistently focused on initiatives that foster positive change. Her ultimate goal is to lead by example, uniting women in a collective pursuit of their dreams and aspirations.

Driven by a deep-seated desire to uplift those who are often overlooked, Anna is dedicated to providing women and children with the essential tools, resources, and confidence needed to thrive. She firmly believes that by empowering others, she can initiate a ripple effect that inspires future generations to dream bigger and live bolder.
